

Requesting school medical accommodation for a child involves a formal and detailed approach, outlining the child's specific medical needs and requesting reasonable adjustments to support their educational experience. This guide provides free letter templates for parents to request school medical accommodation, including an example that matches the template exactly, and a variation of the template for different scenarios.

Approach and Benefits of Requesting School Medical Accommodation for a Child

- Detail Specific Medical Needs: Clearly describe your child's medical condition and the specific accommodations required for their school activities.
- Request Reasonable Accommodations: Specify the adjustments or modifications needed to facilitate your child's learning and participation in school activities.
- Provide Medical Justification: Include a brief explanation or medical documentation to support your request, if comfortable doing so.
- Maintain a Respectful and Concerned Tone: Ensure your request is respectful and demonstrates your concern for your child's well-being and education.

Components of a School Medical Accommodation Request Letter

Formal Greeting: Address the letter to the appropriate school official, such as the principal or school counselor.

Introduction of Child's Condition: Briefly mention your child's medical condition.

Explanation of Needed Accommodations: Describe the specific accommodations you are requesting for your child.

Importance of Accommodations: Explain how these accommodations will enable your child to effectively participate in school activities.

Closing with a Request for Dialogue: Conclude by expressing your willingness to discuss the request further.

Advice for Drafting a School Medical Accommodation Request Letter

Clarity and Specificity: Be clear about your child's medical needs and the specific accommodations you are requesting.

Respectful and Advocative Tone: Maintain a tone that is respectful and advocates for your child's needs.

Confidentiality and Sensitivity: Handle the details of your child's medical condition with sensitivity, respecting their privacy.

Focus on Educational Success: Emphasize how the accommodations will support or enhance your child's educational experience.

Professional and Error-Free Composition: Ensure your letter is well-written and free from errors.

Dear Principal Williams,

I am writing to request accommodations for my child, Emily Thompson, who is a student in the third grade at Lincoln Elementary School. Emily has been diagnosed with asthma, which affects her in a school setting.

To support Emily's academic success and well-being, we are requesting a modified physical education plan and the ability to carry and use her inhaler as needed. These accommodations are crucial for managing her condition and enabling her to fully participate in school activities.

We understand the importance of these accommodations for Emily's educational experience and are willing to provide any necessary medical documentation to support our request.

Thank you for considering our application for accommodations. We are eager to work with the school to ensure that Emily receives the support she needs.

Sincerely,

Michael and Sarah Thompson
