Subject: Seeking copyright permission

Dear Katelyn Cooper,

I have read your book titled 'Tools every digital marketer requires in 2019' and consider it to be a true masterpiece.

I own a blog named 'Easy money making techniques using Marketing'. I would like to use a brief section of your book (pages 16 and 17) where you have discussed businesses that can be driven online with digital marketing in one of my thesis. I will cite the source of information correctly and due credit will be given to the author as well.

I feel hopeful that you would allow me to use this content in my thesis.

Thanks Again!

Regards,
