Dear ---,

I (Your name), would like to introduce myself (tell about yourself) and have been living at ---- (mention location). Around so many years I have been associated with fishing and have been dealing in organizing events and competitions.

This year also I am looking forward to (mention the reason) and I am looking for sponsors who can help me making this event a great success. So, I would like you to be a sponsor with us and help us in making this event a great success.

We have come to know about your keen interest in fishing and would like to extend it through this event and gain you social exposure as well.

In case you have any doubt, please feel free to contact us anytime. We are looking forward to have a great association with you.

Yours Sincerely,
Your Name
