Subject: (-----)

Dear David Mathews,

I (mention your name) am writing this letter to recommend ----- (mention the name of the person) working as a ----- (mention the job title) since ----- (mention years). The department and team she is working with are quite happy with his/her work performance and he/she has made an impressive impression on everyone. He/she has undoubtedly the required leadership qualities and skills.

The projects he/she has worked on have always been completed on time and successful. Further, the clients have also appreciated the service being provided during the process. He/she is creative and a hard-working employee, and is also known as one of the most helpful among the colleagues. I have believed in her as a team member and think that her contribution towards the project can substantially help the company to grow. I also think that her knowledge and experience makes her an ideal candidate for the promotion.

So, I would request you to take a look at his/her credentials and give him/her a chance they deserve.

Yours Sincerely,
(Signature)
Xyla Cash
