

APOLOGY LETTER TO BOYFRIEND FOR BEING MEAN

From,
Jordan Calderon
430-985 Eleifend St.
Duluth Washington 92611
(427) 930-5255

11-11-2002

To,
Zorita Anderson
1964 Facilisis Avenue
Bell Gardens Texas 87065

Subject: (**)

Dear Zorita Anderson,

It is being very difficult for me to talk to you directly and that is why I am writing this letter to you. This is not a letter for any justification in regard to my mistake. This is just to write to you that I'm sorry. I'm really sorry dear Tom. How can I be this mean to you? I had no idea that I would do something like that and would hurt you so much. It just happened and I truly regret my behavior with you.

Tom, can you please give us another chance and forgive me? I promise that I will never be like this again. This is not me, and it should not be me. I love you so much and I'm missing you already.

I understand that you might need some time to get out of it. But, whenever or whatever comes in your mind please tell me. Don't just stay silent like this.

This is killing me. Please please, please.

I am waiting to hear from you. I hope that you will at least pick my call. I'm sorry love. I really am. Love you so much.

Yours,
(Your Signature)
Jordan Calderon