Dear Joan Romero,

We have been friends since such a long and have gone through many ups and downs. I remember how nice and loving you've been to me in all my crisis and stand as firm support to me. But, I might not be that good friend like you. I can't imagine you being rude to me as I'd been in past days. You surely don't deserve such behavior.

I am writing this to ask for your apology for my rude behavior. I am really for hurting you and I promise that I would never repeat such bad behavior. Please consider and forgive. I miss you.

Hope to hear from you,

Your Friend,
Davis Patrick
