

Apology Letter for Hurt Feelings to Girlfriend

Dear Hina,

I know that you don't want to talk to me and might not be interested in reading this letter too. But still, I couldn't hold myself more and had to write to you for an apology. I know that I hurt you a lot and this time I am not even eligible enough to apologize for betraying you and for hurting your feelings and emotions.

I am writing because I have realized that I should ask for an apology to you. Hina, I am sorry dear. Can you give me one last chance?? I beg for an apology from you. I promise that I would never hurt you and will make you happy by doing whatever that I can. I am really sorry for being breaking your heart and for being disloyal. I accept my mistake and your silence is killing me.

Please at least talk to me.

With Love,
