Dear Keegan Blair,

As you already know pretty much about me and my life, this has been a very tough time for me and my family. And now, finally, I have decided to leave my job here. I will be moving out and will find another one. I had to write it to you because you have been my strongest asset while being here. I am so fortunate to meet a person like you and developed a lifelong friendship. I really had an amazing and fun time while being here. But because of circumstance, I am moving. We shall be in touch forever! You are such a gentle person I know. Take care. Also, tomorrow is going to be my last working day here. We should party!

Love & Regards.
