Dear Emerson Espinoza,

I know that I have hurt you so bad. But I am really sorry for it. I didn't mean to do something that would hurt you but somehow I have hurt you. Life has played a tricky moment with me and I found myself so trapped at this moment. I am really worried about us because I don't want to lose you. Please give me another chance to prove myself. You know how much I love you. I request you to at least talk to me, I beg you. Hope to hear from you. I miss you so much.

Yours,
Daniel Malone
