

Apology Letter to Dad from Daughter

Hey Dad,

How are you doing? I hope you and mom are doing fine and taking good care of you.

I am also fine here. I am writing this letter to apologize to you as I won't be able to come for your silver wedding anniversary. I genuinely regret that I won't be able to make it your important day as [write her husband's name] can't get off from work and doctor has denied me to travel this long during this month of pregnancy.

I'm sorry dad and so to mom too. But I promise to meet you both very soon.

I am sending a small present for both of you and I hope that you both like it. Please have the best celebration and share as many pictures with me. You both are just a perfect example of love, care and happiness to us.

I love you both and missing you a lot.

Take care.

Yours,

Dina
