Dear Malcolm Long,

Hope you have been doing well.

I Raymond Levy am writing this letter to thank you for being a part of my life. Since the day we met ---------- (mention the date) there have been many moments where we spent some good moments and worst moments together as well. In the beginning, there have been days when we tried to understand each and did things that would make us feel special and important. However, as time passed by, the differences between us started to grow bigger and bigger. And as time passed by, the differences became stronger and we grew apart.
But, our separation has made me a stronger person who has grown and matured as an individual in life. I just wanted to thank you for being a part of my life and adding some moments of togetherness.

Yours dearly,
(Your Signature)
Raymond Levy
