Dear Nyssa Vazquez,

I Lawrence Moreno your loving wife would like to say thank you to you for being such a great and wonderful husband. Since we have been married on ----- (mention the date) there have been many ups and downs in our life, but the best thing about our relationship has been that we have been together throughout all these years. I can proudly say that our relationship now is stronger than ever and we are in this together for a lifetime.

Through this letter, I wanted to thank you for being such a caring and supportive husband in my time of need.

Yours dearly,
