Subject: (-----)

Dear Huwi Leonardo,

In the dark phase of life, even the slightest sign of light makes you see the positives and come out of that situation. I ----- (mention your name) would like to thank you for offering me the right support and guidance through the most difficult time of my life. I appreciate your understanding of my situation and willingness to help me during this phase of my life.

I have realized that it is great to have someone with you who is more experienced in handling situations such as ----- (mention about your situation). I would like to thank you for offering me help in a difficult situation. I was going through ----- (explain your situation in detail).

So, I am writing this letter to you for the right support and guidance I had from you through this most difficult phase of life.

Yours truly,
Bersani Elnard
