Dear Hiroko Potter,

Please consider my letter as a thank you note to you and the company for offering me this six months interspersed with the company. I have to wait genuinely for such an offer because I always believed the APS company is one of the best company with the best marketing strategy. I really appreciate that you had provided me a chance to work in one of the successful projects where I will be learning every aspect of business and marketing.

It is my great pleasure to work in a company like this and I promise to take full advantage of this offer.

I hope things are shaping up in the best way and this internship helps me enough to go in my career and otherwise.

Thank you a lot. I am looking forward to great learning.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
(Your Signature)
