

Apology Letter To Boss For Misbehavior

To,
Mr. Michael [At many of the corporate, there is no culture of sir or Ma'am]
Manager In-Charge
ABC Corporation
USA

Dear Michael,

This is to apologize to you for my inappropriate behavior last time. I was extremely annoyed because of the condition around and I just could not hold my temper. I understand that this kind of attitude is absolutely bad and now I have realized that I should apologize for it. Michael, you being my senior I truly respect you and it was just for the moment. I surely regret my misbehavior. I am really for that. Please consider my apology and allow me to resume my job. I promise not to repeat it and would learn some anger management strategies too. I hope you would understand my condition and will grant me permission to join again. I hope to hear from you soon.

Thanking you.

Sincerely,
(Your Signature)
Lee Preston
981 Eget Rd.
Clemson GA 04645
(221) 156-5026

