

Apology Letter Sample for Mistake

To,

Dearest Sister,

I know that you are extremely angry and annoyed with me. I understand the reason too. But what can I do as I already told you that I have I won't be able to get more leaves and make it to your big day. I am really sorry, again. I must say that you are more important than anything else, but my job is not allowing me.

I promise that I will come to your place in the coming weekend and would meet you soon. I hope that you would understand. You know that I love you so much. Love and kisses to you!

Yours,
Jeny.
