

Apology Letter to Daughter from Mother

Dear Kerry,

I was thinking to write to you again as you were not replying to our previous letters. Are you all right dear Jennie? Your father was also worried about you. How are you doing in your exams and when will you come to the home? I am very sorry for hurting you and we actually wanted to come to meet you. But your father was so busy with his office work so we were not able to come to you. I am really sorry as I promised you but I didn't come to you. Please forgive my dear I will come to you for sure. I love you. Meet you soon and stay blessed. Good luck for your exams.

With lots of love,

Yours

Mom.
