

Apology Letter to Teacher for Not Doing Homework

From,
Anand Sharma
343 Leatherwood Street
Endicott, NY 13760
anands@gmail.com

Date – 11/01/1990

To,
Anjali Sharma
Assistant Prof. (Advanced Chemistry)
Institute of Advanced Chemistry, USA
Shanjali@gmail.com

Subject: -----

Dear Mam/Sir,

I am writing this letter with most sincere feelings to apologize for not doing my (your subject name/topic name) homework. The day you assigned the homework was the day my grandma was flying down/coming to visit me. Since, I hadn't seen and met her for quite some time, my excitement knew no bounds. Amidst this I forgot about everything else and could only think of spending as much time with her as possible. You are well aware that I have never skipped my homework or lessons in the past and take my studies seriously. I assure you that this won't happen again and my pending homework will be completed by tomorrow.

Genuinely apologizing once again, hoping for your forgiveness.

Yours sincerely,

(Anand Sharma)

