Dear Sir,

With my cover letter, I wish to seek permission for the publication of my journal titled " Game Changer". The journal is based on the worldwide adoption of the vegan lifestyle for the bodybuilders and masses in general. I'm the sole researcher of this journal and the journal has my name as its official author. The journal provides the research information on the adoption of a vegan diet and cutting off the non-vegetarian and dairy products diet. It involves the research that shows the ultimate result of vegan diet adoption by over 100 people over 1 year. This research contains only a genuine piece of work without any content of plagiarism. I kindly urge you to give it the due space in your editorial so that the world can read and benefit from it.

Thanks & regards

Dwayne Thompson
